

2023-2024 UCI Cyclo-Cross World Cup Entry Information

GENERAL INFORMATION

All riders are advised to carefully read and understand all the information below.

For all categories, entry in the UCI Cyclo-cross World Cups is made by Cycling New Zealand. Please take care to understand the dates required for each event and ensure you complete the expression of interest prior to the due date. Application dates are listed on Page 4 of this document.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be eligible to enter Cyclo-cross World Cups you MUST:

- Have a current International Race Licence with the nationality marked as NZL
- Hold a current New Zealand Passport
- Have valid race insurance (required for your International Race Licence to be processed) which must cover the duration of the international events for which you are applying

All riders applying for entry MUST:

- Compete in the 2023 Cyclo-cross National Championships OR apply for an exemption in writing to Rebekah.cullinane@cyclingnewzealand.nz
- Fully complete the Rider Application process by the date specified unless alternative arrangements have been agreed with the HP Director, or designate, as applicable;
- Not be selected in a Cycling New Zealand alternate discipline, unless otherwise agreed with the HP Director, or designate, as applicable;
- Not be under investigation for any breach of the Cycling New Zealand Constitution or any rule, regulation or requirement of Cycling New Zealand, or the UCI;
- Not have any outstanding debts owed to Cycling New Zealand;
- Not have acted in a manner so as to bring themselves, the sport of cycling, or Cycling New Zealand, into public disrepute;
- Not have used or administered any substance which, if it had been detected as being present in the rider's body tissue or fluids, would have constituted doping, or used any prohibited method or committed any other doping offence as defined in the Cycling New Zealand antidoping rules (which are the Sports Anti-Doping Rules), or the UCI's anti-doping rules;
- Not be under investigation for any breach or anti-doping rule violation of any part of the Sports Anti-Doping Act 2006, the Sports Anti-Doping Rules, the UCI Anti-Doping Regulations, or the WADA Code;
- Have provided Cycling New Zealand with key contact details for communication purposes (including a current physical address, email address, and telephone number); and
- Be eligible to represent New Zealand at the applicable International Competition(s) for which the Team is being selected, including complying with any relevant age restrictions, which status is to be determined in accordance with the rules of the relevant competition(s).

If you are allocated an entry, you must also:

- Sign a Cycling New Zealand athlete agreement – this will be emailed to you.
- Riders will be required to wear New Zealand team uniform. Le Col bib-shorts and SS race jerseys are available for purchase for $80 per piece. Current National Champions will be required to wear their champion jersey.

Cycling New Zealand will:

- Complete entries for UCI World Cups
- Forward on any UCI / CNZ communications
- Confirm any race entry fees, which will be invoiced to the rider
- Please note there will be no specific Team Manager / Cycling New Zealand staff for New Zealand at the World Cup events.

Note: Any fines received by the rider are the responsibility of the rider to pay
(The UCI sends any fines through Cycling New Zealand who will on-invoice for the rider to pay)

ANTI-DOPING

We encourage all riders competing overseas to complete education through Drug Free Sport NZ (DFSNZ). If you have not completed any DFSNZ education in the current calendar year please complete the DFSNZ e-learning module. Please complete Level 1 if you have done no prior education or Level 2 if have completed education previously.

The latest Anti-doping information can be found on the Drug Free Sport NZ website.

The Cycling New Zealand website also contains the latest information.

If you have any questions regarding the requirements please contact Cycling New Zealand HP Programmes Administrator, Rebekah Cullinane rebekah.cullinane@cyclingnewzealand.nz

Please note that the UCI have a no needle policy, more information can be found HERE

As of 1 March 2019, the UCI has banned the use of Tramadol in competition for all cycling codes. For more information, please visit the following links:

- UCI Medical Rules (updated 01.03.2020) – see page 24.

ALLOCATIONS & QUOTA

Entries will be allocated as per dates listed in the table below from applications received, using the following criteria in order:

1. Individual riders in order of UCI ranking as at each respective allocation date.
2. If there are entries remaining after each round of allocations, riders without a UCI ranking will be considered in the order their application was received, provided the criteria is met.

NOTE: Quota per category varies per event. To view the quota for all UCI Cyclo-cross World Cups please CLICK HERE.

We highly recommend athletes familiarise themselves with the UCI rules. Part 5: Cyclo-Cross - World Cup Event rules start on page 20.

CONDITIONS

By completing the online Cyclo-Cross World Cup Entry Form you are agreeing to adhere to the CNZRT/Cycling New Zealand rules and regulations and will be bound by the CNZRT and Cycling New Zealand Code of Conduct.

Failure to do so, or breach of the conditions as laid out in the CNZRT and Cycling New Zealand Codes of Conduct, may lead to forced withdrawal from any international competition and / or suspension of your international licence.

EVENT INFORMATION

Information about each event can be found on the UCI website – this will be updated closer to the start of each world cup.
